“What I see within these pages are ticklers, teasers, and other tools to nudge you in the direction of your own divinity. There can't be a better calling for a book. There can't be a higher desire for a person.”

FROM THE POWER OF OUR WAY

“It is time for us to come together and collectively choose a new consciousness. It is time for us to co-create a new existence, a new experience, and write a new story of hope for the generations to come. It is through our choices and experiences of today that the history of tomorrow is created. By choosing to set aside a few moments each day for our own individual healing work, we can create a Universal Energy that will mend a wounded world. It is time”
